

MORE INFORMATION ON EDPS:

Every student should have their first EDP completed in middle school before entering high school. For students receiving special education services, an EDP should be used with an IEP and, if needed, a personal curriculum to plan the student's course of study and class schedule during each year of high school.