

Information You Should Know

The Michigan Alliance for Families hopes that articles and resources available in this email, packet, information folder, and/or on the Michigan Alliance for Families Web Site, www.michiganallianceforfamilies.org, are helpful. These resources and links are from a variety of individuals, organizations, and companies. However, the inclusion of materials in emails, packets, folders or on the Web Site carries no endorsement or recommendation of any kind from the Michigan Department of Education, U.S. Department of Education, The Arc Michigan, or the Michigan Alliance. The Michigan Alliance for Families' packets, information folders and Web site pages are not intended as a substitute for assistance from qualified educational, legal, and medical professionals. The information folders and Web site are provided for information only and users should evaluate them themselves for accuracy, relevance and timeliness as each child's and family's needs are unique.

We welcome your comments, questions or suggestions. Please inform us of other web sites you have found particularly helpful so we may consider providing a link to them on our site. You may contact us by calling 800-552-4821 or e-mail info@Michiganallianceforfamilies.org

You are welcome to reproduce non-copyrighted material from this folder. However, please give credit to the individuals, groups, agencies, or organizations that produced them. DO NOT reproduce any copyrighted material. Michigan Alliance for Families has obtained permission to use these articles in our folders. However, this permission does not extend beyond Michigan Alliance for Families. Thank You!
