This workshop will explore six skills parents can use to become more effective advocates for their child with a disability, including:

- understanding your child’s disability
- knowing your school district
- knowing your rights and responsibilities
- using clear and effective communication
- understanding the special education process
- knowing the dispute resolution process

Who should attend? Families of children/young adults with disabilities/learning challenges, school staff, community members, and organizations.

Register by 4-24-18 with Kanika Littleton
