BARRYTON ELEMENTARY

19701 30th Avenue, Barryton 49305

Your child's success in school is influenced by many things.

Is your child being removed from school?

Are behaviors getting in the way of learning and building relationships with others?

Are you finding yourself in power struggles with your child?

This workshop will cover successful behavior "for life" as well as home and school communication.

Who should attend? Families with a child with disability or learning challenges, school staff, other community members
