Michigan Alliance for Families is planning our future work in Tuscola County. This stakeholder meeting will bring together families and community members for networking, dialogue, and planning.

Who should attend?

Parents and caregivers of children/ teens/ young adults with a disability or learning challenge; community agencies, community organizations, service clubs, school district employees, PTA, school board members, appointed and elected officials, and community members interested in the education of children and supporting families.

Why is this important?

To identify and meet the needs of families in Tuscola County, we need you, your ideas, and your support.

If you require accommodations or materials in an alternative format, please let us know one week before the workshop.

Michigan Alliance for Families is our state's federally designated Parent Training and Information Center and a Michigan Department of Education IDEA Grant Funded Initiative.

We provide information, support, and referrals for parents who have children (birth through age 26) who receive special education services. There is never any cost for families.
