

Strategies for Supporting Your Child's Learning at Home

A hands-on, individualized training for families who participated in the Fall 2020 PBIS Strategies for Supporting Your Child's Learning at Home

Each family will work with a Michigan Alliance for Families parent mentor during in and out of training activities to personalize supports and strategies for their child, in their home, and in collaborating with their school in supporting their child.

Learn more about:

- Creating meaningful tools specifically for your child in your home
- Preventing and replacing unwanted behaviors based on your child's interests and needs
- How to make data collection more meaningful
- How to collaborate with your school more effectively to help with supports at home

- Webinars are designed for families who attended (or viewed all 3 online sessions) of the Michigan Alliance for Families and MiMTSS PBIS at Home Webinar Series
- Webinars will focus on family engagement in creating and implementing individualized supports and strategies for:
 - Routines, expectations, and rules
 - Reminding, recognizing, and rewarding behavior
 - Responding to and correcting unwanted behavior
- Series is intended to provide strategies for mild to moderate interfering behavior and for preventative strategies.

Note: this not as an intensive intervention for significant challenging behavior such as self-injurious behavior, significant verbal or physical aggression toward self or others, property destruction, etc. and may require more extensive individualized intervention with experienced professionals

Training is offered through a collaboration with Michigan Alliance for Families and the Michigan Multi-Tiered Systems of Support \(MiMTSS\) Technical Assistance Center
