Communication and collaboration in special education are uniquely challenging. The pandemic is another layer that has impacted communication.

Join Special Education Mediation Services (SEMS) for this online workshop to be more effective in your communication with school. We'll look at how the pandemic has changed family and school relationships.

- Share effective communication tips to improve collaboration and partnerships
- Consider how the Covid 19 pandemic impacted communication and collaboration
- Reflect on what we learned from the pandemic that can inform our learning environments moving forward with this a once in a lifetime opportunity to embark upon a new path to improved student success.

Who should attend?

Families with a child with a disability or learning challenge, school staff, other community members
