

Collecting Academic and Behavior Data at Home

with Special Education
Mediation Services

Wednesday, November 10
12:00pm – 1:00 pm

Registration required:

<https://tinyurl.com/hmwftkne>

This one-hour session will focus on the most common issues with data , the realities of data collection during remote learning, and how you can support progress monitoring at home during the COVID- 19 pandemic and beyond.

- How is progress on the IEP goals supposed to be measured
- How to determine what data needs to be monitored and collected
- Practical tips for collecting quantitative and qualitative data
- How to track questions or observations you might want to raise with the IEP team regarding how your student doing at home during remote instruction

Who should attend?

Families with a child with disabilities or learning challenges, school staff, other community members

Questions? info@michiganallianceforfamilies.org

