

Building Blocks of Self-Advocacy

with Stephanie Nicholls and Karen Wang

Tuesday, May 2, 2023
12:00pm-1:30pm

Register at <https://tinyurl.com/4h8p2txm>

Families have a unique opportunity to support self-advocacy. Supporting youth and young adults with disabilities to develop and use self-advocacy skills can have a positive impact throughout their life.

This workshop will provide participants a framework for encouraging self-advocacy.

- The importance of knowing their disability
- Expressing their thoughts
- Knowing their rights

Who should attend? Families with a teen or young adult with disabilities or learning challenges, school staff, other community members.

Questions? info@michiganallianceforfamilies.org

