

The Power of Notice

with Michelle Driscoll

Join us for a free virtual opportunity to learn more about The Power of Notice. Notice is a legal requirement under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). It is a procedural safeguard for students and parents and protects a student's right to a free appropriate public education (FAPE).

This presentation will discuss:

- Federal regulations and state rules about written notice
- The difference between notice, notification, and consent
- When written notice must be provided and when it is not required
- What information must be included in written notice
- The importance of written notice to protect a student's right to a free appropriate public education (FAPE)

Who should attend? Families with a child with disabilities or learning challenges, school staff, other community members.
