

Disability Is Not a Bad Word with Stephanie Nicholls

Wednesday, February 28, 2024
6:30pm-7:30pm

Register at tinyurl.com/zwjwvhje

Can we embrace the word “disability” as an aspect of identity?

In this workshop we will explore how society views disability and how that impacts people with disabilities across the lifespan.

We will take a closer look at bias against people with disabilities and what we can do as individuals to address ableism.

Who should attend? Families with a child or young adult with disabilities or learning challenges, school staff, other community members.

Questions? info@michiganallianceforfamilies.org

