When a child with a disability demonstrates behavior that impedes their learning or the learning of others, behavioral supports may be needed to ensure a Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE).

March 12 - Positive Behavioral Intervention and Support Overview with Stephanie Nicholls

Does your child have challenging behaviors at school? Come learn about services provided through the Individualized Education Program (IEP) to teach and support positive behaviors at school.

- What a Functional Behavior Analysis (FBA) is and how to request one
- How FBA leads to development of a Behavior Intervention Plan (BIP)
- How to make sure the BIP utilizes Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS)
- What to do if the plan isn't working

March 19 - Exploring Behavior Supports with Stacie Rulison

Behavior supports are designed to meet the needs and interests of the student.

- What is Applied Behavioral Analysis (ABA)
- ABA strategies at school
- Individualizing strategies
- Review of classroom examples
- Family involvement, using strategies at home

Who should attend? Families with a child with a disability or learning challenge, school staff, other community members.
