

Rethinking Discipline

Amy Wilhelm, Student Advocacy Center of Michigan

All students have basic due process rights to notice and an opportunity to be heard when accused of misbehavior. Students with disabilities have additional protections.

Dealing with discipline issues? Join Student Advocacy Center of Michigan online to learn about current Michigan school discipline laws and your student's rights.

- What does Michigan school discipline law require?
- What protections does your student have?
- What is the difference between a suspension and expulsion?
- What are the seven factors that must be considered before any suspension or expulsion?

Who should attend? Families with a child with disabilities or learning challenges, school staff, other community members.
