Michigan Disability
Rights Coalition

Students who have difficulty expressing themselves may require an alternative way to communicate. Communication systems, strategies, and tools that replace or supplement natural speech are known as augmentative and alternative communication (AAC).

Learn from Michigan Disability Rights Coalition about AAC in this webinar, including:

- What is AAC and when AAC should be considered
- How to find the right AAC
- Philosophies to consider

AAC resources, including supporting organizations, training and support, research, books, funding, podcasts, and social media, will be shared.

Who should attend?

Families with a child with a disability or learning challenge, school staff, other community members.
