This workshop explores skills parents can use to become more effective advocates for their child with a disability.

- Understand your child's disability.
- Know the key players.
- Know your rights and responsibilities.
- Be organized.
- Use clear and effective communication.
- Know how to resolve disagreements.

There will be time for Q&A after the presentation is complete.

Who should attend? Families with a child with disabilities or learning challenges, school staff, other community members.
