The special education process begins by determining if your child is eligible for an IEP.

Join us to learn more about how eligibility is determined here in Michigan. If you suspect a disability is impacting your child's learning, behavior, or social-emotional growth, please come. If your child already receives special education programs and services and you want to better understand eligibility categories and criteria, please come.

We will explore:

- the difference between medical diagnosis and IEP eligibility
- importance of "educational impact"
- criteria for the 13 eligibility categories
- resources to explore

Who should attend?

Who should attend: Families with a child with a disability or learning concerns, school staff, other community members.
