Evaluation is the first step in the special education process to determine if a student qualifies to receive special education services.

This free, online workshop will explain when and why a parent might seek an evaluation.

- How to request a comprehensive evaluation
- Understand the purpose of the evaluation process
- Explain eligibility criteria
- Review of timelines

We'll cover important terms parents need to know, like REED, Notice, and IEE, as well as parent's rights during the evaluation process.

Who should attend?

Families with a child with a suspected disability or learning challenge, school staff, other community members.
