It's never too early to start planning for the transition from special education into adult life!

Join Michigan Alliance for Families to create your own action plan for adult life after exiting school. In this interactive webinar, you can learn about:

- Rights and responsibilities as children grow up
- Strategies and supports to make transition easier
- Examples of IEP transition plans for Michigan students
- The new MiPath worksheet that helps every student with an IEP make a self-advocacy statement

Who should attend?

Who should attend? Students with disabilities and their families, and members of the community who support these students.
